GUIDANCE

Grade Level—Intermediate Division (Grades IX-X)

Tuesdays, 9.45 to 10.00 a.m.

In this series of six broadcasts, the happenings in the lives of a group of senior elementary and junior high school students will be dramatized. Self-appraisal, modifications to personality and behaviour, four forms of post-school training, and applying for a job will be prominent factors in the incidents portrayed and should therefore assist guidance counsellors dealing with these topics in the guidance class. The series is entitled:

PLANNING FOR TOMORROW

No. 1 November 9 — KNOW YOUR SELF

In this first broadcast the accent will be on the values and methods of self-appraisal.

No. 2 November 16 — CHANGE FOR THE BETTER

The self-appraisal leads to desirable personality modifications.

No. 3 November 23 — MANNERS MAKE THE MAN

Proper behaviour when with other people is an important part of preparing for tomorrow.

No. 4 November 30 — SOONER OR LATER

In this broadcast the question of whether to take a job now and learn a business from the bottom up or to go to university and prepare for a professional career will be examined from the point of view of discovering some of the facts of university and on-the-job training.

No. 5 December 7 ANCIENT AND MODERN

The institutes of technology are looked at to see what they have to offer our modern young people. Secondly, the very old method of trade training—the apprenticeship system—is examined to discover its role in training people for modern industry.

No. 6 December 14 COMPLETE THIS FORM IN DUPLICATE

The application form is only part of the process of obtaining a job. In this broadcast students will learn how to go about securing a position.

THIS GIFT OF FREEDOM

Grade Level—Intermediate Division (Grades IX-X)

Friday, 9.55 to 10.15 a.m.

The purpose of this series of National School Broadcasts is to acquaint the students with some of the many events which have contributed to Canadian democratic institutions, and to lead them to an appreciation of our way of life. In this series, a newcomer to Canada, the well-known CBC radio and television actor, Joseph Furst, will tell us why he left his native Austria and chose Canada as his new home. He will also inquire into the beginnings of Canadian democracy. A narrator with the assistance of dramatized illustrations will provide the answers to Mr. Furst's questions.

No. 1 November 12 I CAME TO CANADA
No. 2 November 19 WE HOLD THE REINS
No. 3 November 26 WE SAY WHAT WE THINK
No. 4 December 3 OUR GUARDIAN, THE LAW
No. 5 December 10 TO HAVE AND TO HOLD

MUSIC

December 17, 1953.—CHRISTMAS CHORAL PROGRAMME 9.45 to 10.15 a.m.

Schools in Regina will join together to present a special programme of Christmas carols for the enjoyment of school listeners in all parts of Canada. See "Young Canada Listens" for more complete details.

MUSIC FOR YOUNG FOLK

Grade Level—Intermediate Division (Grades IX-X)

Wednesdays, 9.45 to 10.15 a.m.

January 5 to March 7

This is a series of ten broadcasts given under the direction of Dr. G. Roy Fenwick, Provincial Director of Music, who will serve as commentator during each programme. The broadcasts will be presented by outstanding professional artists. An additional pamphlet giving further details of this series will be distributed through the Department of Education in December, 1954.

ENGLISH

Grade Level—Senior Division (Grades XI-XIII)

Tuesdays, 9.45 to 10.15 a.m.

The series of four broadcasts in English during the present school year is based upon the Grade XIII Course in Literature prescribed for the Departmental Examination of 1955. While it will be, therefore, of special interest and value for pupils of Grade XIII, it will also assist pupils in other grades, and particularly in Grades XI and XII, to gain further understanding and enjoyment of English literature.

No. 1 January 4 MACBETH

Dramatization of selected passages; deeper understanding and appreciation of the play through further insight into plot and characterization.

No. 2 January 11 SHORTER POEMS

The reading, wholly or in part, with appropriate commentary, of a number of poems representative of different types and periods of poetry found in the prescription for Grades XIII. The selection will include the following:

Shakespeare: Sonnet XXIX,
Milton: On His Blindness
Blake: The Tiger,
Pickthall: Pere Lalemant.

No. 3 January 18 ANDREA DEL SARTO

The revelation by reading and commentary of the character interest and dramatic force of this poem; the further understanding of the unique style and power of Browning.

No. 4 January 25 PRIDE AND PREJUDICE

The dramatization of selected portions of this novel in order to assist pupils to read it with added understanding and pleasure.

ENGLISH HISTORY

Grade Level—Intermediate Division (Grades IX-X)

Thursdays, 9.45 to 10.05 a.m.

This series of six school broadcasts on famous figures from English History has been prepared by the British Broadcasting Corporation for the use of children 12 to 14 years of age. Comments on the educational value of this series are invited.

No. 1	January 6	BUNYAN
No. 2	January 13	NELSON
No. 3	January 20	HAWKINS
No. 4	January 27	COKE

No. 6	February 10	HAMPDEN

SOCIAL STUDIES

Grade Level—Senior Division (Grades XI-XIII)

Tuesdays, 9.45 to 10.15 a.m.

The Social Studies broadcasts present in dramatic form significant incidents from the lives of six great representatives of the Renaissance. The series attempts to interpret the age in which these men lived, as well as the variety and scope of their interests and achievements.

The treatment of their lives in "World History: Part I" should be covered with the pupils of Grade XI prior to the broadcasts. The excellent illustrations in the textbook will also heighten their appreciation. Students in Grades XII and XIII should also find the broadcasts of special interest because of their awareness of the place of the Renaissance in the development of modern civilization.
